

Hiroshima Experience

to think about
Peace ~広島で学ぶ、感じる、考える~

-Learn, feel and think about peace in Hiroshima-

2023,

11.1-12.29

Experience the sights, sounds, feelings and tastes of Hiroshima, the City of International Peace Culture. A special moment not to be missed, this winter only.

Special exhibition and extended evening hours at Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum

● Special exhibition: The Gaze of the World: Hiroshima Through the Eyes of Visitors

Exhibition period: Wednesday, Nov. 1 - Monday, Dec. 25, 2023
(1st basement floor, East Building)

Exhibits at this special exhibition include visitors' books signed by G7 leaders and Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelenskyy a message and origami crane from former US President Barack Obama and a message and candleholder given by Pope Francis.

Note: Some exhibits will be replaced with replicas on Wednesday, November 15.

Admission is free of charge.

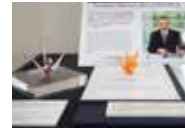

● Extended evening viewing hours

Exhibition period: Wednesday, Nov. 1 - Friday, Dec. 29, 2023

Hours are extended by one hour. November: Normally 8:30 AM to 6:00 PM, extended to 8:30 AM to 7:00 PM
December: Normally 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM, extended to 8:30 AM to 6:00 PM

* Admission ends 30 minutes before closing time.

WEBSITE

Recital on a piano that survived the A-bomb

Local students will perform a piano recital on "Akiko-san's piano," a piano that survived the atomic bombing and is now on exhibit at Hiroshima Peace Memorial Park Rest House. Enjoy a special moment listening to music performed with thoughts of peace.

Date and time:
6:00 PM to 8:00 PM, Friday, Nov. 3, 2023
(Culture Day, a public holiday)

- Admission: ¥500 (incl. tax), includes beverage
- Location: Piano Café, 2nd floor, Hiroshima Peace Memorial Park Rest House (1-1 Nakajimacho, Naka-ku, Hiroshima-shi, Hiroshima)

WEBSITE

Tour of A-bombed survivor trees (4 tours)

This is a walking tour of trees in the City of Hiroshima that survived the atomic bomb blast. What are A-bombed survivor trees?

"A-bombed survivor trees" refers to approximately 160 trees in Hiroshima, all within a roughly 2 km radius of ground zero, registered as trees that budded anew after the A-bomb blast.

First tour: Nov. 3 3:00 PM to 5:30 PM
Second tour: Nov. 18 3:00 PM to 5:30 PM
Third tour: Dec. 4 3:00 PM to 5:30 PM
Fourth tour: Dec. 20 3:00 PM to 5:30 PM

Tour reservations are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Dates, times and routes are subject to change. Cancelled only in case of heavy rain. No meals are served.

- Tours are guided, with simultaneous English translation.
- Each tour takes about 2 ½ hours and covers about 4.5 km.
- Fee: ¥3,000 (incl. tax) ● Capacity: 20 people

WEBSITE

Hiroshima Christmas Market

Christmas market is a tradition that was born in Germany and spread to countries throughout Europe. In Hiroshima, Christmas market is a winter celebration that enfolds the entire city in lights and smiles. In a joyous atmosphere decorated with little huts, illuminations and other Christmas decorations, sample special food items and goods available only here. A delightful event filled with the joyful spirit of Christmas.

Dates and times:
Weekdays 4:00 PM - 9:00 PM,
Saturdays and Sundays 11:00 AM - 9:00 PM,
Friday, Dec. 15 - Monday, Dec. 25

- Location: Hiroshima Gate Park Plaza (5 Motomachi, Naka-ku, Hiroshima-shi, Hiroshima)

Admission is free of charge.

©NEW HIROSHIMA GATEPARK

WEBSITE

